HUSBAND - Edward Boykin Jr.

Timeline for Edward Boykin, Jr., and Judith Gwaltney

Abt 1676 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Edward Boykin, Jr., was born to Edward Boykin, Sr., and Ann unknown.[1]

Abt 1678 Surry Co., Virginia. Miss Gwaltney was born to William Gwaltney and Alice Flake.

Abt 1697 Virginia. Edward Boykin, Jr., and Miss Gwaltney were married.

Abt 1698 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Son, Edward Boykin III was born.

Abt 1700 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Son, Thomas Boykin was born.

Abt 1703 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Son, Hardy Boykin was born.

Abt 1706 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Son, Solomon Boykin was born.

Abt 1710 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Daughter, Rachel Boykin was born.

Abt 1713 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Son, Benjamin Boykin was born.

Abt 1716 Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. Daughter, Martha Boykin was born.

20 Nov 1739 Bertie Co., North Carolina. Edward Boykin bought 100 acres on the S. side of Potacasy Swamp. Abstract 4087. Patent Book 8, page 55.[2]

20 Nov 1739 Bertie Co., North Carolina. Edward Boykin bought 100 acres, joining Walls corner, Smiths line, and the County line. Abstract 4095. Patent Book 8, page 57.[3]

Bef 08 Aug 1743 Northampton Co., North Carolina. Edward Boykin died. Will written: 08 June 1743.[4] Son Thomas lands lying between Richard Walls & Meadow Branch. Son Soloman lands above Meadow Branch. Son: Hardy: land on Cypress Swamp. Son: Edward (III). Son: Benjamin. Dau: Rachel Heron. Dau: Martha. Grandson: Henry Boykin, Grandsons: Drury & Henry. Wife: Judith. Exec: Wife Judith, and son Soloman Boykin. Wit.: Chas. Campbell, Richard Wall.

NOTE: Edward Boykin, Jr., married a daughter of William Gwaltney and Alice Flake because William Gwaltney left a cow to his grandson, Edward Boykin (III). Edward's wife was Judith when he died, so she could have been a Gwaltney. It is possible that the Gwaltney daughter was someone else, who died before March 1732, and Edward Boykin, Jr., married again. Many people think his wife Judith was a Wall, daughter of Richard Wall; however, Judith Wall married William Deloach, and this couple moved into South Carolina with Edward Boykin III. Another candidate is Judith Hill, daughter of William Hill; however, I don't know of any documentation of the existence of a Judith Hill.

 28 Mar 1728 Surry Co., VA. William Gwaltney, Sr., who was probably born about 1655, made his will; probated 02 Mar 1732. Leg.-daughter Ruth, wife of Robert Petway; son William; son John; grandson Thomas; grandson Edward Boykin, one cow; daughters Martha and Mary to have plantation as long as they are single.[5] Therefore, William Gwaltney, Sr., had a daughter, unnamed, who married a Boykin and had a son, Edward, born bef 1728. She may have died since William did not name a married Boykin daughter.

Alice Flake and William Gwaltney were married and the parents of three children, named by Robert Flake, Sr., in his will of 1 Jul 1696. Alice Flake was his daughter.

01 Jul 1696 Surry Co., VA. Robert Flake, Sr., deeded 450 acres to grandsons William Gwaltney and John Gwaltney, two sons of William Gwaltney of Surry County, by Alice Gwaltney, his wife... 450 acres which were patented in Isle of Wight Co. but are now in Surry Co.. Should either Will or John die, the land is to go the next son of William Gwaltney and Alice or to their daughter Kathrine.[6]

Thomas Gwaltney was born by at least 1680. He was in the tax records with his father by 1696.

William Gwaltney was born by at least 1681.

Katherine Gwaltney was born by at least 1683.

Other Gwaltney children were not named.

For Alice (Flake) Gwaltney to be the mother of these children, as identified by Robert Flake, Sr., she must have been born by 1664 at the latest.

Margaret Marriott married Robert Flake, Jr. (I don't know proofs of this). This would have been about 1680/1684. They had a daughter, Alice Flake. Robert Flake, Jr., did not mention a wife's name in his will, so Margaret may have died before then.[7]

Regarding Margaret Marriott: Alice (Warren) Marriott, who married Matthias Marriott, was born about 1645, according to a legal deposition she made in 1677.[8] If she married as early as 1661, at age 16, her daughter, Margaret Marriott, could have been born about 1661/1662, if she were the first child.

Margaret could not be the mother of Alice Flake because they were born about the same time. Therefore, I conclude that Margaret must have been a second wife. There would have been an unknown first wife who was Alice's mother.

[1] NOTE: Ann was not Ann Gwaltney. Born about 1652/1650, she was too old to be a daughter of William Gwaltney, who was born about 1655.

Abt 1700 Perhaps Virginia or North Carolina. Sarah was born to unknown parents.

Abt 1720 Perhaps Virginia or North Carolina. Edward Boykin and Sarah unknown were married.

Abt 1722 Probably North Carolina. Ann Boykin was born.

Bef 1730 Probably North Carolina. Henry Boykin was born to Edward and Sarah.

Abt 1738 Perhaps North Carolina or Darlington Co., South Carolina. Robert Williams married Ann Boykin.[2]

Abt 1740 Edward Boykin III is said to have married a Judith Holt. This supposedly occurred about 1740, but SC records in 1749 and 1756 show his wife as Sarah. Proof of a Judith Holt has not yet been found.[3] If he married a Judith Holt, it may have been before Sarah about 1720 or after Sarah about 1757. This remains to be documented.

03 Mar 1746 Craven Co., South Carolina. Edward Boykin, plat for 100 acres in Welsh Tract. Others mentioned in the record: James Gillispie and George Hunter.[4]

04 Jan 1761 Darlington Co., South Carolina. Both Robert Williams and his wife Ann were "ejected" from the Welsh Neck church after repeatedly being admonished during disputes about church protocol and authority.[25]

08 May 1761 Craven Co., South Carolina. Robert Edwards, memorial for 100 acres on Great Pedee River. Others mentioned: Edward Boykin, Walter Downs, Robert Williams.[26]

May 1764 Georgia. "Edward Boykin setting forth that he had been about a year in this Province, from SC and had had no land granted him and desirous to obtain land for cultivation, have a wife and son; and four slaves, therefore praying for two hundred acres up Savannah River." [27] "According to Colonial Records the first petition elapsed that he might be permitted to take out a Grant for 200 acres in St. Matthew Parish. This petition for Edward Boykin III was for two hundred acres of land on the north side of Brier Creek." [28]

29 Oct 1765 St. Matthews Parish, Georgia. Edward Boykin was granted 200 acres. Bounded on the north by _____ Pedrow & South by Shruddrines and Edward Boykin.[29]

Bef Oct 1767 Probably Craven Co./Darlington Co., South Carolina. Anne (Boykin) Williams appears to have died before this date, since her husband's will did not name her.

04 Oct 1767 Craven Co., South Carolina. Robert Williams made his will.[30] To sons David and Jehu, eldest daughter Celete [Celia?] McCall, daughter Mary Hart, two youngest daughters Eleanor Williams, Anne Williams. Wife not named, therefore, she probably died before this date.[31]

Abt 1764 Screven Co., Georgia. John Boykin, Sr., settled in Georgia, in the area that became Screven County. It is likely that his father, Edward, came about this time.[32]

04 Apr 1765 Georgia. Petition of Edward Boykin to the Governor's Council.[33] Granted a residence, Bluff " Tuckasee Kings", Effingham Co., GA.[34]

Bef Dec 1771 Screven Co., Georgia. John Boykin, Sr., petitioned for land setting forth that he had been upward of seven years in the Province (of Georgia) and was desirous of obtaining land for cultivation in St. Matthew Parish to adjoin his father, Edward Boykin's land. This land was apparently already taken up as he later petitioned for 100 acres in St. Matthew Parish near to land ordered to Solomon Prothero.[35]

03 Dec 1771 St. Matthew Parish, Georgia. Petition for 100 acres of land granted to John Boykin, Sr.[36]

20 Apr 1772 Ebenezer, Effingham Co., Georgia. John Boykin, Sr., married Sarah Tanner in the Jerusalem Church at the Evangelical Lutheran Church.[37]

1782 Effingham Co./Screven Co., Georgia. John Boykin, Sr., had his land confiscated because he sided with the Tories. He was banished. (Act revoked 1805.)[38]

19 Dec 1785 Effingham Co., Georgia. Edward Boykin, planter, to Henry Gindrat of Effingham Co., late of South Carolina, for 50 acres.[39]

Notes

accessed 12 Nov 2018.

"Soloman Boykin married his wife Ester before leaving Virginia for Georgia where he petitioned for a land grant of 200 acres in March 1765."

"In 1766, he was granted 500 acres in Georgia in St. George's Parish."

"He made his will in St. George's Parish, 25 Aug 1770, and was in probate 31 May 1771."

CHILD 6 - Benjamin Boykin

I do not have records for Benjamin Boykin to prove this information.

Some information is from the family tree at www.rootsweb.ancestry.com, WorldConnect Project, of Charles Lucas, database: lucama12, page entitled "John Lucas and Descendants of Eastern NC," last updated 27 Nov 2017; accessed 12 Nov 2018.

"Benjamin Boykin was a Patriot of the American Revolution based upon public service. He is a Patriot of the Sons of the American Revolution. See SAR File #1400 99, NCSAR File #02017, SAR File #7419."

"Benjamin Boykin lived in Isle of Wight County, Virginia; Northampton County, North Carolina; and Edgecombe County, North Carolina and died in Wayne County, North Carolina prior to the formation of Wilson County, North Carolina. See the History of Wilson County and Its Families, 1985, page 147 for more information."

Another web page said: "On March 4, 1761, Benjamin Boykin was granted 320 acres of land in Edgecombe County (Wilson County) on the north side of Contentnea Creek. The crossing at this place was known as Boykin's Ford as early as 1756, so he probably lived there for several years before Earl Granville gave the grant in 1761.

In 1769, he was listed as a taxable in Dobbs County (Wilson County), North Carolina. He probably had moved across the creek to adjoining property which was in another county."
