HUSBAND - Robert Williams Sr.

Robert Williams, Sr., and Ann Lee and Sarah unknown Timeline[1]

Abt 1713 Perhaps Isle of Wight Co., VA, or Bertie Co., NC. Robert Williams was born. John Meidl on "Williams-24341" at www.wikitree.com, proposed that he was the son of George Williams, Jr., and Sarah Mann. (George Williams, Jr., was in Isle of Wight Co., VA, in 1704 and in Bertie Co. by 1722.) However, I think it is more likely that the Rev. Robert Williams, born 1717 in Chowan Precinct of Albemarle County, North Carolina, was the son of George Williams, Jr., and Sarah Mann.

1722 Bertie Precinct was formed from the part of Chowan Precinct of Albemarle County lying west of the Chowan River, according to Wikipedia.org.

Abt 1734 Perhaps Bertie Co., NC. Robert Williams married Anne Lee, daughter of Godfrey Lee and Sarah unknown. According to John Meidl, "Robert Williams married first Anne Lee and then Sarah unknown. It is not clear who was the mother of the children but since Anne Lee was the first wife she is probably the mother." "Robert Williams, Sr. had two deeds dated 1768 that mention his wife Sarah."

Abt 1734 Perhaps Bertie Co., NC. George Williams was born to Robert and Anne. A 1768 deed of gift from Robert Williams and second wife, Sarah, to George suggests that he was Robert's son.

Abt Feb 1740 Perhaps Bertie Co., NC. Margaret Williams was born to Robert and Anne. NOTE: I do not know of any proof that Margaret was their daughter.

1741 Northampton County was formed from Bertie County, NC.

1743 Northampton Co., NC. Robert Williams was in the tax index.[2]

Abt 1750 Northampton Co., NC. Robert Williams, Jr., was born to Robert and Anne. A 1768 deed of gift from Robert Williams and second wife, Sarah, to Robert suggests that he was Robert's son. Other transactions between Robert Sr. and Robert Jr. also argue for relationship.

May Ct 1750 Northampton Co., NC. The will of George Williams [Jr.] was probated. Sons: Robert one Negro; George, land bought of Matthew Kinchen and one Negro; Samuel, one Negro; Jacob, one Negro; William, one Negro. Lands lying on Hopkin Howell's Spring Branch, and Kerby's Creek. Daughters: Sarah, Ann, Mildred. Wife: Sarah, seven Negroes. Other legatees: Ethel. Taylor, and James Turner, Jr. Exec.: Robert Williams, Son. Wit: Jno. Simpson, Ethel. Taylor, Nicholas Monger, William Monger. Clerk of Court. J. Edwards.[3] [Robert is the son of George Williams, Jr., & therefore Robert's son George is a grandson of George Williams, Jr.]

08 May 1751 Northampton Co., NC. Samuel and Robert Williams, both of Northampton County (buyer is not noted in excerpt) 11 pounds 10 shillings current money of Virginia 150 acres joining a branch being the said lands granted to George Williams deceased 04 August 1741, all houses, orchards, and gardens Witness: John Simpson, and John Monger Reg: Northampton County May Court 1751 J. Edwards, Ck. of Court.[4] This is land they inherited from their father.

Abt 1754 Probably Dobbs or Northampton Co., NC. George Williams married Tabitha unknown.

Apr 1757-Apr 1758 Dobbs Co., NC. Thomas Lane to Robert Williams.[5] "(This deed is not available as it was lost in the 1880 fire of the Greene County, North Carolina Court House.) (William Bennett, Genealogist, Rocky Mount, North Carolina.)"

Abt 1760 Probably Dobbs Co., NC. Margaret Williams married Benjamin Best, Sr. (I do not know of proof that she was the daughter of Robert Williams and Anne Scott/Lee.)

One Negro Girl named Patience and her increase to be delivered unto the said George Williams at my death and at my wifes death for an in consideration of Five Shillings to be in hand paid,Witnesses: Aaron Gaskins, Moses Moor Reg. Book 20, p. 40, 10 Nov 1769. Thomas Blake, Register.[12]

02 Sep 1768 Duplin Co., NC. Robert Williams, Senior bought his first land in Duplin County. This land was on Maple Branch which is a tributary of Goshen Swamp in northern Duplin County. William Routledge to Robert Williams, Senior, 280 acres located on Maple Branch.[13] Registered in the Register Office of the Aforesaid County in Book Letter G Folio 141-142 the 24 Day of April 1770. Thomas Blake, Register.

1769 Dobbs Co., NC. Poll Tax Lists: Robert Williams, Senior; Robert Williams, Jr.

14 Dec 1769 Duplin Co., NC. Robert Williams [Sr.], 100 acre grant on North prong of Two Miles branch of the s. side of the s. prong about two miles of Jacob Lockamen's land, Warrant 179, No. 0237. One of the documents mentions John Williams and Jacob Lockaman.

Abt 1773 Dobbs or Duplin Co., NC. Robert Williams, Jr., married Mary Harper.

17 Aug 1775 Duplin Co., NC. Robert Williams (Sr.), deed to James Love of Duplin County, for 280 acres he mentions "except 6 feet square of land where I the said Robert Williams hath buried my wife." [14] Therefore Sarah is assumed to have died prior to 17 August 1775, and was buried at Maple Branch, Duplin County, North Carolina. [Could this refer to Anne, not Sarah?]

1776 Dobbs County, NC. Robert Williams is on the Tax List. He still owned land on Fort Run Swamp.

"It is not known when Joseph Scott's first wife died, but shortly after Godfrey Lee died around 1740, Godfrey's widow Sarah (--) Lee married Joseph Scott. In a 1749 deed in Northampton Co., NC, Joseph and Sarah Scott deeded personal property to Anne (Lee) Williams, Sarah Lee, and Samuel Lee. These three were specifically identified in the deed as the children of SARAH ONLY. None of them - including your Anne (Lee) Williams - was a child of Joseph Scott. Joseph Scott and Sarah (--) Lee had NO CHILDREN TOGETHER. Joseph Scott's will no longer survives, but according to a suit brought against Sarah by his children, Joseph left most of his property to Sarah's children (his step-children), and Joseph's natural children sued Sarah to get what they felt was their rightful inheritance."
