

Thomas Mann, Sr., and Elizabeth (probably Booth) Timeline

- abt 1626 Probably England. Thomas Mann, the immigrant, was born. Although William Marion Mann, Jr., in his chapter, “Descendants of Thomas and Elizabeth Mann of Isle of Wight,” speculated that Thomas Mann/Man was from a Mann family in County Kent, a check of available birth records for this name in England at www.ancestry.com produced a number of Thomas Manns.¹
- abt 1648 Nansemond Co., VA. Thomas Mann emigrated to Virginia and apparently lived here.²
- 22 Mar 1650 Nansemond Co., VA. John Garwood was granted 1,000 acres of land here lying on the north side of the head of Indian Creek for transporting 20 persons to the colony, including Thomas Mann.³
- Abt 1660 Nansemond Co., VA. Charles Mann was born to Thomas Mann, Sr., & Elizabeth. Charles never married apparently. When his father gave him 200 acres in 1681 the deed stipulated that if Charles died without issue, the land reverted to the heirs of Thomas Mann, Sr. (Will & Deed Book 1, pp. 473-474).⁴ Apparently, this was the land that Thomas Mann, Jr., sold 23 Feb 1690.
- Abt 1666 Nansemond Co., VA. Thomas Mann, Jr., was born to Thomas Mann, Sr., & Elizabeth.
- Abt 1670 Nansemond Co., VA. Unknown daughter was born to Thomas Mann, Sr., & Elizabeth. She married a man named Crawford and had a son William Crawford, according to her brother Thomas’s 1735 will, below. The birth date here is arbitrary.
- Abt 1673 Nansemond Co., VA. Sarah Mann was born to Thomas Mann, Sr., & Elizabeth. Birth date is only a guess, based on her marriage by 1693.⁵
- 20 Apr 1680 Isle of Wight Co., VA. Richard Booth obtained a patent of 550 acres on Corowaugh Swamp for transporting 12 persons.⁶
- 08 Nov 1681 Isle of Wight Co., VA. Richard Booth assigned his interest in this land to Thomas Mann and wife Elizabeth. Wit.: John Rogers, Charles Mann.⁷ The deed was corrected on 9 Feb 1692/3.⁸
